

Cote-Nord Quebec Snowmobile Tour Itinerary

Total Distance: 1,340 kilometres in 5 days of riding

Day One: Trailer 960 kilometres from Toronto to Sacré-Coeur. Where We Stayed: Auberge Ferme 5 Étoiles. Located right on Trans Quebec Trail 93 just north of the Village of Sacré-Coeur and overlooking the Saguenay Fiord.

Day Two: Snowmobile 355 kilometres from Sacré-Coeur to Baie Comeau via Trans Quebec 93 and Trans Quebec 3. Where We Stayed: Hotel le Manoir. Perched on the St. Lawrence River's edge on the east side of Baie-Comeau, the hotel is accessible off Trans Quebec Trail 3 by the same local trail leading to the ferry dock to cross to Matane, with gas/convenience store available via the next local trail east of the hotel trail turn off.

Day Three: Snowmobile 295 kilometres from Baie Comeau to Sept-Îles via Trans Quebec 3. Where We Stayed: Hôtel le Voyageur. Located on the west side of Sept-Iles, the Hôtel le Voyageur is accessible via a local trail off Trans Quebec Trail 3 – look for a sign that says “Relais Club Ouk-Pik” and follow the lodging symbol to their back door.

Day Four: Snowmobile 295 kilometres from Sept-Îles to Baie Comeau via Trans Quebec 3. Where We Stayed: Hotel le Manoir.

Day Five: Snowmobile 170 kilometres from Baie Comeau to Forestville via Trans Quebec 3. Add 100 kilometres with loop north of town. Where We Stayed: Econo Lodge. Well marked with trail signs, the Econo Lodge Forestville is right beside Trans Quebec Trail 3.

Day Six: Snowmobile 225 kilometres from Forestville to Sacré-Coeur via Trans Quebec 3 and Trans Quebec 93, with side trip into Tadoussac. 368-km Alternate Route: Trans Quebec 3 for 126 km from Forestville to Les Escoumins (fuel), then Sentier Pelchat (152-km private trail) north to Trans Quebec 93 (fuel at Auberge 31) and then Trans Quebec 93 south for about 90 km to Sacré-Coeur.
